Topsy Turvy Yoga for Kids

Imaginative yoga taught by Diana Scharf and Jessica Brown takes a new twist by combining imaginative play and current play based early childhood teaching philosophy with yoga movements. The class is designed to help children learn how to manage stress, be mindful in their environment, develop focus and concentration, as well as build strength & self-confidence in a safe, non-competitive environment. Whether acting out a story through yoga poses, practicing them by playing yogic games, or doing calming breathing exercises, each class will introduce yogis to the fun side of the practice!

Wednesdays: 11:30—12:30 until January

(11:45-12:45 from January to June)

Session I: 10/18-2/7 Session II: 2/14-6/6

$425.00 per session

YOUNG ELITE ART

Kerri Lubell, Master Teacher of Art will encourage the children to explore the concepts of color, line, shape, texture, and size through painting, collage, 3D construction, mobiles, puppets, and clay. Your child will be supported and motivated in making art in their own way and will experience the joy of being Young at Art!

Remember to dress for mess!
