9. The Ballad of the Four Sons

Said the father to his children

“At the Seder you will dine

You will eat your fill of matza

You will drink four cups of wine.”

Now this father had no daughters

But his sons they numbered four

One was wise and one was wicked

One was simple and a bore

And the fourth was sweet and winsome

He was young and he was small

While his brothers asked the questions

He could scarcely speak at all

Said the wise son to his father

“Could you please explain the laws of the customs of the Seder?

Could you please explain the cause?”

And the father proudly answered

“Each and every one must see in every age and generation as if we ourselves were freed.”

Then the wicked son said wickedly

“What does all this mean to you?”

And the father’s voice was bitter as his grief and anger grew.

“If yourself you don’t consider as a son of Israel

then for you this has no meaning you could be a slave as well.”

Then the simple son said simply “What is this?” And quietly the good father told his offspring

“We were freed from slavery.”

And the youngest son was silent for he was not very bold

But his eyes grew wide with wonder as the Pesach tale was told.

Now dear children heed the lesson and remember ever more the good father and his children and his sons that numbered four.
