Imaginative yoga taught by Diana Scharf and Jessica Brown: takes a new twist by combining imaginative play and current play based early childhood teaching philosophy with yoga movements. The class is designed to help children learn how to manage stress, be mindful in their environment, develop focus and concentration, as well as build strength & self-confidence in a safe, non-competitive environment. Whether acting out a story through yoga poses, practicing them by playing yogic games, or doing calming breathing exercises, each class will introduce yogis to the fun side of the practice!
