

Janet Axelrod is the flutist with the Radio City Music Hall Orchestra, and was recently the flute/Irish flutist in the musical Finding Neverland. Her versatile career includes performances with groups such as New York City Opera and American Symphony Orchestra, many Broadway musicals and recording studios playing flutes from around the world (Sesame Street, The Wonder Pets, the Marvelous Mrs. Maisel etc.). She co-founded a new music ensemble which made its Carnegie Hall debut and won the ASCAP/Chamber Music America First Prize for Adventurous Programming as well as Meet the Composer and NEA grants. Janet Axelrod has toured the Far East and Europe as a flute and piccolo recitalist, chamber musician and teacher. She has taught private lessons and masterclasses all over the U.S., including The Juilliard School, the Manhattan School of Music, and several private schools in New York City.