ARTICLE II - PURPOSES

The purposes of the Congregation shall include (a) providing for its Members a means for religious worship and the expression of the ideals and faith of Judaism; (b) affording religious education to the children of Members of the Congregation; (c) affording facilities for adult education of its Members; (d) fostering a sense of Jewish community; (e) promoting the well-being of the Jewish people; (f) participating in local, national and international efforts for the betterment of the world; and (g) such other activities as the Board of Trustees may from time to time deem appropriate.

ARTICLE III - PRACTICES AND AFFILIATIONS

Section 1. The Congregation shall be affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism ("URJ").

Section 2. The Congregation shall be guided by the principles and practices of Reform Judaism, as interpreted by the Central Conference of American Rabbis and the URJ, and as approved by the Board of Trustees.

Section 3. Seats at religious services shall be unassigned.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Section 1. Any person, 18 years of age or over, may apply for membership in the Congregation ("Membership"), subject to the criteria specified below. Applications for Membership must be in writing and must be submitted to the Executive Director for review and acceptance. Further, prior to acceptance by the Executive Director, upon the request of the Executive Director, an Officer or a member of the Board of Trustees, an application for Membership may be reviewed for acceptance by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. A member of the Congregation ("Member") is a Jewish person whose application for Membership has been accepted and who has complied with the financial requirements of Membership. A Member's Jewish spouse or Jewish life partner is also a Member. A non-Jewish person, who (1) is currently or was formerly the spouse or life partner of a Jewish Member, or (2) has Jewish children, shall also be permitted to be a Member. A Member must be Jewish to (a) be a member of the Board of Trustees, (b) be an Officer, (c) be a member of the Worship Committee, or (d) be a voting member of the Religious School Committee, if any.

Section 3. The unit of Membership shall be an individual or a family. For the purpose of this Article, a family includes: (a) spouses; (b) a head of household and his or her life partner residing together; and (c) a single head of household. A family also includes unmarried children of Members, who have not yet reached the age of 26.

Section 4. A Member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Congregation. In the case of a family, each spouse or life partner shall have one vote. Children in the family unit shall not be entitled to vote.

Section 5. Membership dues shall be such amount as is fixed by the Board of Trustees and approved by the Congregation. Special assessments may be levied upon the Members with the approval of the Congregation at a regular or special meeting, provided that the written notice of meeting shall contain notice that action on the proposed special assessment will be taken at the meeting.

Section 6. All Members shall pay dues in the amount fixed pursuant to this Article, and such fees, pledges, assessments and other financial obligations as are levied by the Board of Trustees or the Congregation, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws. The Board of Trustees may establish a Dues Review Committee that is responsible for reviewing special financial situations of Members and, upon such review, shall have the authority to grant full or partial waivers or modifications of any monetary obligations of any Member to the Congregation. If such a committee is not established, the authority to do so shall rest with the Treasurer.

Section 7. All dues, fees, pledges, assessments, and other financial obligations are due and payable on July 1 of the fiscal year in which they become due, unless other payment arrangements have been approved pursuant to Section 6 above. Before receiving High Holy Days tickets or receiving class assignments for children in Religious School, unless arrangements have been approved pursuant to Section 6 above, a Member must pay at least one-half of the dues, and the full amount of all Religious School fees, for the current fiscal year, as well as all balances in arrears.

Section 8. Members who fail to meet all financial obligations due the Congregation by the end of the fiscal year in which such obligations are due and payable shall, unless such obligation is waived, extended or modified by the Board of Trustees, the President, the Treasurer, or a Dues Review Committee, be deemed suspended and deprived of all Membership rights and privileges. Written notice shall be given of the suspension by an Officer. Any suspended Member, who has been in arrears for a period of six months beyond the end of the fiscal year, unless such obligation is waived, extended or modified as above, may be dropped from the roll of Members by vote of the Board of Trustees. Suspended Members may be reinstated upon payment of arrears, or on such terms as may be stipulated by the Board of Trustees, the President, or the Dues Review Committee, if any.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1 (a). The management and administration of the Congregation, and the custody and control of its property, shall be vested in the Board of Trustees, which shall consist of not less than fifteen nor more than forty-five Jewish Members, the number to be determined by the Board of Trustees from time to time, to be elected for terms of three years, in classes, so that the terms of approximately one-third expire each year. Those Trustees whose terms are expiring shall remain in office through the last day of the fiscal year. The term of a newly elected Trustee shall begin on the first day of the fiscal year following his or her election and shall end on the last day of the third fiscal year of the term. Newly elected Trustees will be allowed and encouraged to attend and observe, but not vote during, the Board of Trustees meeting immediately prior to the commencement of his or her term. Ex-officio members of the Board of Trustees without the right to vote shall not be counted in determining the number of Trustees present at a Board of Trustees meeting. A person who is not a Member or who is a spouse of a current Trustee or Officer or, except as provided below, who is a paid employee, spouse, or life partner of a paid employee of the Congregation shall not be eligible to serve as an elected or ex-officio member of the Board of Trustees. Members, spouses, or life partners of Members, who serve as teachers in the Religious School or Early Childhood Program, or who act as paid consultants for any Congregation activity, may serve on the Board of Trustees but shall abstain from discussion and from voting on questions of compensation of such teachers or consultants. In the event that the office of President is being held by two individuals serving as co-Presidents, each such co-President shall have one vote.

(b) The Board of Trustees shall include, as full voting members, the president of the Women of Reform Judaism a/k/a Sisterhood and the president of Men's Council a/k/a Brotherhood or such successor organization (each, an "Affiliated Auxiliary"), if such Affiliated Auxiliary is then active, provided, however, if there is more than one president of an Affiliated Auxiliary, the relevant Affiliated Auxiliary shall select one president to be the representative to the Board of Trustees. Each such president shall serve as Trustee only so long as he or she holds the office of president and provided that he or she is Jewish. In the event that the president of the Affiliated Auxiliary is not Jewish, a representative eligible to serve shall be designated by the Affiliated Auxiliary, to serve on the Board of Trustees. A Trustee who is elected president of an Affiliated Auxiliary and will serve as the representative of such Affiliated Auxiliary on the Board of Trustees, shall either resign as an elected Trustee or the relevant Affiliated Auxiliary may select another of its eligible members to be the representative to the Board of Trustees and the elected Trustee shall then retain his or her elected position.

Section 2. Every person who shall have served at least one full term as President (or co-President) shall, after retiring from such office, be an Honorary Trustee. Honorary Trustees shall have none of the powers or privileges of the Trustees but shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Board of Trustees and to participate in the discussions. The immediate past President (including, if applicable, each immediate past co-President) shall be an ex-officio Member of the Board of Trustees with the right to vote and all other powers and privileges of a Trustee.

Section 3. If any vacancy shall occur in the office of a Trustee, other than the president of an Affiliated Auxiliary, before the expiration of the term for which elected, such vacancy may be filled by election by the remaining Trustees. The Trustee so elected shall continue in office until the end of the fiscal year. If at the end of said fiscal year, the term of the Trustee who vacated his or her position has not expired, the Nominating Committee shall appoint a Trustee to fill such unexpired term. Such replacement Trustee may also then serve two full successive terms after the expiration of such unexpired term.

Section 4(a). The Board of Trustees shall hold regular meetings not less than once every three (3) months unless otherwise agreed by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, meet via telephone or other electronic media as long as such alternative methodology is announced at least three (3) days (or such longer period as may be required by applicable law) prior to the date of such meeting. Trustees may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be present and vote at a meeting of the Board of Trustees through a proxy. A proxy will be effective only for the specific meeting of the Board of Trustees referenced therein, and any adjournments of that meeting. Members of the Congregation who are not Trustees may attend meetings with the agreement of the Executive Committee or the Board of Trustees.

(b) Upon the call of the President, or upon the written request of any three Trustees to the Secretary or in his or her absence the first of the following Officers who is not absent, viz., the President, a Vice-President, the Secretary or the Treasurer, a special meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be called not less than three nor more than fifteen days after such a call or request is received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a special meeting of the Board of Trustees may, in an emergency, as reasonably determined by the President, be called by the President upon not less than 24 hours prior notice. In each such case, the call or request for the meeting must specify the business that is proposed to be transacted at the special meeting, the time and place, and the purpose of, such meeting. No business shall be transacted at such meeting other than that provided for in the notice.

Section 5. A majority of Trustees with the right to vote shall constitute a quorum. A quorum is required for the Board of Trustees to vote on any matters of business. A Trustee may be present and be included in a quorum via proxy. A majority vote of those present shall be required for the adoption of any resolution or other transactions of business, except where a larger proportion is required by these By-Laws or Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 6. The Board of Trustees, in its discretion, shall have the authority to hire and terminate an Executive Director. The Board of Trustees, in its discretion, shall have the authority to hire a Religious School Director and Early Childhood Program Director. The Executive Committee, with the approval of the Board of Trustees, will set the compensation of such persons.

Section 7. The Board of Trustees shall have the power to borrow from banks or other institutions or persons on the unsecured credit of the Congregation, without prior approval of the Congregation, provided such loans mature within one year from date of borrowing. The Board of Trustees shall also have the power, without prior approval of the Congregation, to borrow against pledges of its Members in accordance with the maturity of such pledges. However, the purchase, sale, disposition and mortgaging of real property of the Congregation, or the leasing of the same (other than classroom and gymnasium space) for a period in excess of one year, shall only be undertaken if authorized by the Congregation by a two-thirds vote of those present in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting thereof. The call for such meeting shall specify this as a purpose.

Section 8. The Board of Trustees shall, at its meetings, review the total expenditures incurred in the then current fiscal year, and shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that expenditures are in accordance with the operating budget approved at the annual meeting of the Congregation.

Section 9. The Board of Trustees shall promulgate policies, rules and procedures, from time to time, with respect to the creation, acceptance and administration of endowment and other special gifts. All such policies, rules and procedures shall be set out in a Policies and Procedures Manual which shall be maintained by the Secretary or another person designated by the President.

(a) Gifts not restricted by the donor shall be available for operating expenses or any Congregational use and purpose.

(b) A gift to the Congregation restricted by the donor requires the approval of the Board of Trustees before acceptance. Unless otherwise agreed by the Board of Trustees and the donor:

(i) Income from any such gift shall be available for any Congregational use and purpose; and

(ii) Principal of any such gift may be used for any Congregational use and purpose other than the restricted purpose of the donor upon the affirmative vote of two thirds of the Trustees at a meeting of the Board of Trustees at which consideration of such use of principal is a purpose stated in the notice of meeting.

(c) The Board of Trustees may designate unrestricted gifts:

(i) To act as endowment with principal to be invested and only income to be spent; or

(ii) To be spent for specified Congregational uses and purposes

The Board of Trustees may also vote to change any such designation.

(d) Gifts that were either restricted by the donor or designated by the Board of Trustees which remain unspent shall be identified in the accounts of the Congregation.

(e) Investment of endowment funds shall be made with the approval of the Board of Trustees. To the extent practical, the principal of restricted or designated gifts shall be combined, invested, and reinvested separately from and not commingled with other Congregational investments.

Section 10. The Board of Trustees shall promulgate and adopt guidelines with respect to who shall lead the Congregation in certain portions of worship, after consultation with the Worship Committee, if any, and the Rabbis of the Congregation. Any such guidelines will be documented in the Policies and Procedures Manual.

Section 11. A Trustee who has served two full successive terms shall not be eligible for election to an additional consecutive term unless such serving Trustee whose term is about to expire is: (i) an Officer whose term extends beyond the expiration of such term as a Trustee; or (ii) nominated for election as an Officer at the annual meeting at which such Trustee's successor would otherwise be elected. Notwithstanding the above, such Trustee may only serve a partial term if to serve a full term would result in such Trustee's service on the Board of Trustees exceeding the Term Limit, as defined below. No individual may serve as a Trustee or Officer (other than as President or Co-President) for more than 12 consecutive years without a break in service ("Term Limit").

Section 12. The office of any elected Trustee who is absent without adequate excuse from three successive regular meetings of the Board of Trustees may be declared vacant by vote of the Board of Trustees.

The officers of the Congregation shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Treasurer and a Secretary (each an "Officer"), each of whom must be a Trustee at the time of filing of the Nominating Committee's report, as provided in Article VII, and at the time of his or her election as an Officer. The Chief Legal Officer may be removed by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Section 3. The President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected by the Congregation at the annual meeting for a term of one year commencing on the first day of the next fiscal year after that annual meeting.
