

Holiday Resources - Rosh Hashanah

For all of you who choose to celebrate the eve of Rosh Hashanah at home with family and friends, we are happy to send you resources to enrich your celebration.

- Blessings and prayers to say around the table (for candles, wine, for apples and honey, for the ones we love – friends and family).
- A story to read around the table – “The Princess Who Wanted to See God.”
- An audio recording of the (See column to left)
  - blessings for candles
  - wine & shehecheyanu
  - for the ones we love
- A wonderful video about key concepts for Rosh Hashanah.
  - Look for these phrases:
  - Every wrong can be made right
  - Dip your apple in the honey
  - Shana tova umetukah (a good and sweet year)
  - The Sephardic custom of having a fish head on the table (we should be the head ("Rosh"), not the tail) .
  - Avinu malkeinu - O Lord deliver us
- Watch "No Mirrors in My Nana's House read by Tia & Tamera Mowry" on YouTube. This beautiful story and song are an inspiring complement to the story, "The Princess who Never Cried."

We hope these resources will add depth and meaning – and support you in your celebration of Rosh Hashanah at home. You may want to preview the materials to decide what is appropriate for your gathering.
